Linda Temple/husband Jim will offer paint splatter with sale

- PROGRAM: Linda Renaud

- Medium is Watercolor Wax batik
- Her process emphasizes planning, value (dark to light), and shape (positive or negative) Blended washes of color plus hard edged abstracted shapes makes the composition appealing .
- Her work is representational but contains elements of abstraction
- Her paintings are built alternating wax plus paint layers from light values to darker.
- Wax acts as a resist
- The paint colors change value from light to dark.
- Value is the bones and structure of the painting
- Uses only 5 value steps from light to dark
- Value keeps the eye moving, pathway of light

- Paints detail on the edges of shape only=just enough
