

Lincoln Gallery News

Dear First name / friend ,

Phew! We just wrapped up the All Member Show and it was a good one. Our members - students, basic and exhibiting - have a lot of talent. It was fun to see it all on our walls in February.

This past Saturday, we returned the artwork to our Basic and Student artists, and invited additional works from our exhibiting artists into the gallery. This includes eleven new artists for 2023. March also sees the return of the gift shop with all new items for the loved ones in your life.

Also new in March: our critique sessions for Basic Plus and Exhibiting members. Finding new ways to serve our members strengthens the organization, which makes the Loveland arts community stronger as well.

We've added some exciting learning opportunities for the community as well. See the workshops and classes we have highlighted in this newsletter, then click through to our workshop page. There are classes for every budget, interest and skill level coming up.

Thank you, again, for your support of Lincoln Gallery and Thompson Valley Art League. This is going to be an exciting year and we're just getting started!

Night on the Town: Demonstration by Diane Kremer

Friday, March 10
Open to the public from 6 to 9 p.m.

Our members have brought in new work this month and the gift shop has returned. Join us at Night on the Town for conversation, snacks, and art. Diane Kremer, member jewelry artist, will be demonstrating polymer clay techniques.

New Membership Benefit: Critique Sessions

Seeing your artwork with an analytical eye can be useful for improving your work and growing as an artist. Critiquing isn't criticizing. Each member may bring one piece to the critique session. TVAL facilitators will lead the group. We will take turns critiquing our work.

This is a new benefit for Basic PLUS & Exhibiting Members. We will meet bi-monthly in Lincoln Gallery. Our next Critique Sessions will be:

Thursday, March 9 - 10:30 a.m. to noon

Thursday, March 23 - 6:30 to 8 p.m.

More classes available!

Plan ahead for classes and workshops later in the year.
