

Lincoln Gallery News

Dear First name / friend ,

We are geared up for an amazing end to 2023 at Lincoln Gallery. This weekend our artists brought in more - and new - work to fill the gallery after the exit of the National Photography Show. They've also filled the gift shop to overflowing with smaller works and festive holiday items. You'll definitely want to come in to see it all.

Shop Local Saturday in November was...not ideal for shopping. If you missed out on shopping because of the snow, we still want to appreciate you by extending our deals until December 23. Some of our members have also chosen to discount their work this month. There are deals to be had!

We will not be having a meeting in December, but have invited our members to celebrate a year well done during Night on the Town on Friday, December 8. Be sure to stop by - you are also an important part of our success.

Thank you, as always, for your support of TVAL and Lincoln Gallery!

It's Colorado Gives Day! Thompson Valley Art League is one of the many nonprofits you can choose to donate to through Colorado Gives. You can donate to the organization to support our education and mentoring programs that strengthen the arts community. Or, this year, you can donate to the 2024 Mural Project to help us complete our facade renewal.

Linda French has been putting her artistic abilities to use in recognition of the Loveland K-9 unit. In September, Linda was called by Sergeant Steve Colburn, head of the K-9 unit. He had seen her work and wanted her to paint their recently retired K-9 dogs.

Linda was honored to be asked. "I'm such a dog person," she said. Linda trained guide dogs for the blind and brought the program to the Loveland area in the 1990's. She also took dogs to area schools to be with special needs kids and saw the connections they made.

"I feel so honored to be chosen as a commissioned artist for the police department," Linda remarked. She receives photos of the dog to be painted before she begins working. Once the painting is completed the handler comes to her home studio to see the painting and okay it for display.

Linda recently delivered three pastel paintings of K-9 dogs to the Loveland police department where she and the dogs' handlers were able to hang the paintings amid the other K-9 portraits.

Linda is an exhibiting member of the Thompson Valley Art League at Lincoln Gallery. She also teaches pastel classes at the gallery and is active in volunteer work for TVAL.

Her next class at the gallery is a four-session series on reflections:
