

TVAL/Lincoln Gallery Newsletter – March, 2021

It's March: Celebrate the Green (and every other color.) Come In and Take a Look!

Our member-artists have brought in some new works to freshen up the gallery. Lincoln Gallery is filled with gift items, paintings, photographs, ceramics, 3D items – and if you can't make up your mind – we have gift certificates!

As always, you can watch our Facebook Live videos to scan what is available, then take a closer look on the website and call the Gallery to make inquiries or to place an order. We offer

- contactless transactions
- private shopping appointments,
- curbside pick-up,
- local delivery, or
- shipping to your destination.

Applications are now OPEN for Art in the Park (August 7-8.)

Are you an artisan who wants to have a booth at the 2021 Art in the Park? We expect to still be restricted as to the number of booths we will be permitted to have. Thompson

Valley Art League has organized Loveland's Art in the Park event for over 50 years. AITP is held the first weekend in August of each year in conjunction with Loveland's Sculpture in the Park event. Art in the Park is the longest running art festival in Colorado, featuring juried artisans showing a diverse collection of excellent art work. Many booths are already reserved! Don't wait – apply for a booth today: <https://artintheparkloveland.com/>

Meet our newest artists

Rod Forslund

Rod Forslund has his head in the clouds – or at least his paint brush is pointed that direction! Rod is an oil painter and loves to paint the expansiveness of the sky.

Janet Larsen

Janet is a pastel artist. She says, “I get much of my inspiration from the long walks and hikes I take both near my home in Loveland, and hiking in other parts of the world. I sometimes wonder if I am a painter who likes to hike, or a hiker who likes to paint.”

Susie Morey

Susie fell in love with clay as a kid, and started throwing pots on the wheel when she was in high school. She enjoys creating pottery that is functional or whimsical as well as art pieces. She added fused glass when she wants to work in “something sparkly!”

Marilyn Morningstar

Marilyn has been passionate about art for her entire life. She travels extensively and the beautiful scenes of the Southwest United States are frequently featured in her pastel paintings.
