

Monday, July 11, 10 am – 12 Noon

@ the Gazebo, west side, Benson Sculpture Garden, 1125 W 29th, Loveland

Gail will support, encourage, and guide you in:

- * planning: where to go, when, why and with whom?*
- * what to wear, referencing the weather and your general terrain.*
- * finding a location, with safe parking, restrooms, useful shade and level ground.*
- * choosing a scene with a scene grid, qualifying it with a value sketch, and confidently selecting the best canvas shape.*
- * setting up your work space. Lugging your gear to the work spot.*
- * beginning your underpainting/canvas toning, drawing your shapes, and adding color.*
- * what to leave in the car.*

Cost for the class:

Thompson Valley
Art League
member: $40
Non-member: $45

All this and more, as your instructor Gail circulates among you. Lending a hand, offering another tip, seeing the “try-out” through so you are in the groove and ready to forge ahead with your own plein air experience.
