

A mixed media botanical painting featuring a branch with red buds and leaves, set against a background of layered colors and textures. The text 'Mixed Media Botanical Painting' is overlaid in large, white, bold letters.

Mixed Media Botanical Painting

with Amelia Furman

Sunday, March 19, 1 – 4 pm and Monday, March 20, 9 am – 12 noon

at Lincoln Gallery, 429 N. Lincoln Ave., Loveland, CO

Recommended for Intermediate/Advanced students

Ready to take your landscape painting to a new level?

Students are invited to explore Amelia Furman's unique mixed media techniques to capture a botanical image through paper and paint. Her transparent painting method, combined with an underlayer of narrative collage allows for endless moments of surprise and intrigue for not only the painter but the collector.

On the first day Amelia will lead students through her collage techniques: collecting, designing and gluing and then guide them, step-by-step through the painting process on the second day. This class is designed for students with a background in painting that includes understanding color and general blending techniques with representational imagery.

Cost for the class:

Thompson Valley
Art League member:
$200

Non-member: $250

Specialty materials provided by instructor.

Ready to sign up? Register online:
www.lincolngallery.com/workshops

Spaces are limited; only paid registrations secure a place.

The Gallery observes all Covid-19 protocols and is always concerned to protect our visitors' well-being.