

Lincoln Gallery News

Dear First name / friend ,

Thank you, members, for your support in 2023. We're hitting the ground running in 2024 with a full slate of classes from our member artists. There's something for every interest and skill level.

One of our instructors is also our demonstrating artist for Friday's Night on the Town. Come by to meet Kay Keyes Farrar and watch her paint for a while - then sign up for one of her classes when you find yourself inspired.

There's a lot more going on in the upcoming weeks - scroll all the way down to see it all.

Thank you, as always, for your support of TVAL!

Night on the Town

It's a new year!
We have paintings, jewelry,
metal, photography, glass,
pottery, fabric, and gifts galore!

January Member Meeting: What's in Store for 2024

At our January member meeting, we'll be talking about changes to membership requirements, give a gallery update, and talk about new programs and opportunities for all members.

Our program will be Budgeting for Artists and will be presented by the team from Ent Credit Union. You'll get financial tips and information as well as learn about upcoming free financial coaching sessions for TVAL members.

If you would like to pay for your 2024 membership by check, you may bring it to the meeting.

Attend in person at Lincoln Gallery, or via Zoom.

CALL OPEN NOW - The City of Loveland Art in Public Places (AIPP) and the Thompson Valley Art League (TVAL) seek a mural artist to create a large, 3-sided outdoor mural which captures the essence of artistic expression, inviting viewers to explore the rich tapestry of creativity.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The mural will encompass two sides and a 3-foot wrap onto the back of the Lincoln Gallery building located in downtown Loveland. The gallery's north wall is adjacent to the municipal parking lot and the Loveland Museum. There is a desire for this mural to be completed by August of 2024.
