

Lincoln Gallery News

The second weekend in September is going to be a big one for Thompson Valley Art League!

REGIONAL FINE ART SHOW
OPENING RECEPTION
SEPT. 13, 6-9 PM

LINCOLN GALLERY
429 N. LINCOLN AVE
LOVELAND, COLORADO

Night on the Town, Friday, Sept. 13 will be the opening reception for the Regional Fine Art Show. Artists and guests will be able to come during the 6:00 to 7:00 hour. The awards presentations will be at 6:30. The show will be open to the public from 7:00 - 9:00 pm.

On Saturday, September 14, TVAL will hold an art sale to benefit victims & firefighters from the Alexander Mountain Fire. TVAL will donate 100% of the Lincoln Gallery commission from the Tent Sale to the benefit fund. One of TVAL's own members, Linda Renaud, lost her art studio with all her art materials, art fair setup and many of her paintings. Linda witnessed firsthand how important the work of the firefighters was. Her home, as well as many others, was saved because of their efforts.

September has something for everyone!

Sunday, Sept 22, 1-5 pm. Cheryl Gratas returns to continue helping artists learn and master watercolor. Cheryl can introduce you to this challenging medium or encourage you to grow in your skills.

Monday, Sept 23, 10 am to 3 pm. Popular teacher and gallery director Kay Keyes Farrar returns with this class on mixing color harmonies in oils. Color is a foundational skill for artists! Make sure you have the learning to strengthen your color choices.

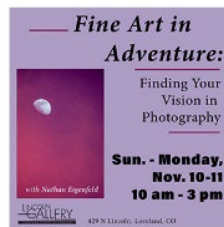

Sunday, Sept 29, 1-4 pm. Who said anything about winter? We're still sweating here! However...it is time to come up with some new ideas for holiday decorations. Gail Frick is here to help with her fused glass instruction.

Monday, Sept 30, 9 am to 12 noon. Would you like to create unique, personal greeting cards for Christmas? This class is for you. Deb has multiple designs that she will help you make. Your family and friends will receive their cards and smile for days.

And we've got four more classes coming up in November!
Wow, what a year!
