November is here! Sign up now for the final classes of the year.

Sunday, November 10, 1 to 5 pm. Learn keys for strong composition, design and a vignette background. Tips will be shared for maintaining color harmony. A variety of finishing techniques will be presented to bring added life and movement to your painting

Saturday, Nov 16, 9 am to 12 noon. This is a class for artists with some - or no - experience in pastels. Learn great ways to use color, show realism, check your work and receive constructive critiques. Even better, instructor Linda French will pre-draw your pet for you so you can hit the ground running!

Sunday, Nov 17, 1 – 4 pm. Gail Frick is back to help with her fused glass instruction. Students will be able to choose from several patterns including, but not limited to, Santa, snowman, gingerbread man/woman, gingerbread house, penguin. THIS CLASS IS SOLD OUT.

The primary focus of the Members meeting on Thursday, November 21 will be the election of new TVAL Board members. Candidates will be introduced to the membership and then people were cast their votes – in person, via Zoom or over the phone. Results will be announced before the meeting concludes.
