2-day Oil Painting Workshop with Daniel Augenstein
at Creator Space (301 N. Railroad Ave – Loveland, CO)

Daniel will teach a technique called reductive painting. This oil painting process provides the student with a technique to block in basic shapes and then pulling out the highlights. Dan uses this teaching strategy to help students develop strong lights and darks in their finished paintings. It really works.

- Where: Creator Space in Loveland, CO.
301 N. Railroad Ave, Loveland.
- Dates: April 27 9:00am-4:00pm and April 28 10:00am-3:00pm, 2019
- Cost: $175.00 visa, MC check or cash paid through the TVAL/Lincoln Gallery
Or online via Lincolngallery.com website

Instructor's Information:

For more than 40 years, Daniel has been a teacher of art (Greeley schools and Aims Community College) and a practicing artist in Greeley and exhibiting in national shows. His goal with his current work is to educate his vision and challenge his techniques. He is amazed and thrilled how his lessons help students overcome the traditional stumbling blocks to successful paintings.
